IN the Register for 1859, some further changes have been made in the arrangement of articles, which may be found more consistent with the natural order.

The articles are arranged throughout the book in alphabetical order, wherever a greater facility or convenience for finding particular articles is gained. Several new articles are inserted this year, which may be found to possess some interest with the reader.

We renew our thanks to our numerous correspondents for their readiness and promptness in giving information in regard to the various changes which are so frequently taking place within the State. To gentlemen of the Legislature during their session in June, 1858, we feel under particular obligation for their readiness and exertions to obtain and give correct information.

✂ Corrections in the Register should be given on or before the 20th of August, for the first one hundred pages, and the remainder by the 10th of September.

Concord, October 10, 1858.

Entered according to an act of Congress, in the year 1858,

ECLIPSES IN THE YEAR 1859.

There will be six Eclipses this year: four of the Sun and two of the Moon, in the following order:

1. The first will be of the Sun, February 2d, 8h. 13m., in the evening. Invisible in the United States.

II. The second will be of the Moon, February 17th. Visible and total, and by calculation as follows:

Beginning, ...	3h. 57m. 30s. morning.
Beginning of total darkness, ...	4h. 56m. 0s. “
Middle, ...	5h. 42m. 21s. “
End of total darkness, ...	6h. 29m. 30s. “
End of Eclipse, ...	7h. 27m. 0s. “
Duration of total darkness, ...	1h. 33m. 30s.
Duration of the Eclipse, ...	3h. 29m. 30s.

Digits eclipsed $19\frac{3}{4}^{\circ}$, partly in the South and partly in the North side of the Earth's shadow.

III. The third will be of the Sun, March 4th, 2h. 0m. in the afternoon. Invisible in the United States. Lat. $1^{\circ} 18' 10''$ N.

IV. The fourth will be a small eclipse of the Sun. Visible in New-England, July 29th, and, by calculation, as follows:

Beginning, ...	5h. 25m. evening.
Middle, ...	5h. 57m. “
End, ...	6h. 36m. “
Duration, ...	1h. 11m.

Digits eclipsed, 3 degrees on the upper limb of the Sun. Moon Lat. $1^{\circ} 16' 20''$, North Dec.

V. The fifth a total but an invisible eclipse of the Moon, August 13th, 11h. 41m. in the forenoon.

VI. The sixth, and last, will be a small eclipse of the Sun, August 27th, 0h. 21m. in the afternoon. Invisible. The Moon's latitude South of the Equator, hence it will pass below the Sun.

A. D. 1853,

By the State of New-Hampshire,

To perpetuate the memory of her illustrious son, whose early efforts, sage counsels and persevering labors contributed largely toward establishing his country's independence and shaping the future destiny of his native State.

(On the east side.)

GOV. WEARE.

He was one of those good men
"Who dare to love their country and be poor."

(On the west side.)

The following were the Committee chosen by the State to erect this Monument :

GEORGE H. DODGE,
J. EVERETT SARGENT,
JOHN H. WIGGINS.

The inscription on the south side of the Monument does not appear to convey definitely the full time which the Hon. Meshech Weare was President; therefore, the following is given, to show the time, according to MS. records; and the time given for the Chief Justice exceeds that on record.

The first political year, after the commencement of the Revolution, began Dec. 21, 1775, the members having been chosen for one year; and when assembled at this time bore the name, Second Provincial Congress, to Jan. 5, 1776, when the Congress resolved itself into a House of Representatives, and adopted a temporary Constitution, to continue during the war with Great Britain, which had been drafted by a committee appointed for the purpose. On the 6th a separate body was chosen, called the Council, and by whom Meshech Weare was chosen President.

Under the Constitution the political year commenced the third Wednesday in December; therefore, properly speaking, Mr. Weare's first political year commenced on the third Wednesday in December, 1775, then a Representative from Hampton-Falls in the second Congress, although he was elected a few days after, Councillor, and then President.

The Hon. Meshech Weare was elected annually President of the Council during the operation of the temporary Constitution, and virtually was the chief magistrate of the State; certainly the highest in power of office. Preliminaries for peace were agreed upon in February, 1783. At this time a new Constitution had not been declared, and was not until Oct. 31, 1783.

Feb. 28, 1783, a resolve was passed by the Legislature, to continue the temporary Constitution in force to June 10, 1784; the Councillors and Representatives having been instructed by the people so to do, if considered expedient.

Under the new Constitution the political year commenced the first Wednesday in June, 1784; consequently, for this year, it ended June, 1785. For this year the Hon. Meshech Weare was elected President of the State of New-Hampshire by unanimous vote, and according to the records he served his full year.

Dr. Belknap, in his History of New-Hampshire, says that President Weare resigned the office of President before the close of the year 1784-5. The following extracts are given from the Council Records and Journal of the House, to show that Dr. Belknap is in error:

Council Records. "Monday, May 16, 1785, agreeably to a summons from His Excellency the President, the Honorables John McClary, Joseph Badger, Francis Blood, Moses Chase, Esqs., members of the Council, attended at Exeter. His Excellency the President being sick, did not attend.

"Tuesday, May 17th, 1785. His Excellency the President, being unable to attend at Exeter, the Honorable Council waited on His Excellency at Hampton-Falls — present, His Excellency and all of the Council — and then proceeded to examine the returned copies of votes for Senators.

"Wednesday, May 18, 1785. Present, as yesterday. His Excellency and Council proceeded to make the following appointments, pursuant to nominations made in March last, viz. : " * * *

Under date June 1, 1785, Journal of the House, is recorded as follows :

“The members elected assembled at the State House in Portsmouth, agreeably to appointment. His Excellency Meshech Weare, Esq., being absent, Hon. Woodbury Langdon, senior Senator, with the Honorable Council, administered the proper oaths, agreeably to the Constitution.”

Mr. Weare was appointed Chief Justice of the Superior Court of Judicature, Jan. 27, 1776, and served to June, 1782, when he resigned, and the Hon. SAMUEL LIVERMORE was appointed his successor.

Councillors.

The first Council under the State Government was chosen June, 1784, five in number, and elected in convention of the Senate and House ; the Senate nominating two and the House three Councillors. This mode of choosing continued until 1792, when, under the revised Constitution, the Councillors were chosen by the legal voters of each county, and the first choice was made March, 1793.

The name of District and Number were not given until the Act of Jan. 3, 1829.

The towns severed from the parent counties, to form new counties, annually in March respectively unite with the parent county, (or counties, where a new county is formed from two) to elect a Councillor, to advise with the Chief Magistrate of the State.

A few exceptions, however, may be mentioned : Bartlett and Jackson, which formerly belonged to Grafton, and were, with other towns, formed into the county of Coös by an act of the Legislature in 1803 ; but Bartlett and Jackson, after paying their annual respect to their worthy parent in uniting, for the common welfare of the State, fifty years, they were united to Carroll, one of the offsprings of Strafford.

The town of Chatham was taken from Coös, June, 1823, and annexed to Strafford county. Pelham was taken from Rockingham, and annexed to Hillsborough, December, 1824. Franklin may be considered an exception, but of an uncommon order, as it was made up of fractional parts from four towns — Andover and Salisbury, of Merrimack county, (originally Hillsborough ;) Northfield from Rockingham, and Sanbornton from Strafford. It would then appear, Franklin was made up of territory once belonging to three of the original counties.

The second Congress, which met at Exeter, December 21, 1775, on the 5th of January, 1776, resolved themselves into a House of Representatives, and on the 6th chose twelve men—five from Rockingham, two each from Strafford, Hillsborough, Cheshire, and one from Grafton counties. These men were called Councillors, but their powers and duties were similar to those of the Senate of the present day, with the exception, they and the House had executive power. In 1784, under the new Constitution, the name of Councillor was changed to that of Senator, but the counties remained the Senatorial Districts until 1792, when the State was districted by towns, and the first election for the choice of Senators was held in March, 1793. The regular Council, consisting of five, were chosen annually in convention of the Senate and House, until 1793.

The Amoskeag Veterans, Battalion, four companies; the Wilson Rifles, Keene; the Gilmanton Artillery; the Lyndeborough Artillery; the Newcastle Light Guards.

According to the returns made to the Adjutant General, in 1858, the whole number of enrolled militia in the State of New-Hampshire is 32,111.

ECCLESIASTICAL.

A TABLE, showing the names of Clergymen, of different denominations, who are settled over or have charge of societies in the different towns in New-Hampshire.

There have been a large number of churches formed in different denominations within the State at different periods, which are destitute of a minister at this time: such in general are not inserted.

Where the same name occurs in two towns, it may be understood the minister officiates in both places.

Abbreviations used to designate the different denominations.—C. T., Congregational Trinitarian; Ut., Unitarian; Pr., Presbyterian; E., Episcopalian; C. B., Calvinist Baptist; F. B., Freewill Baptist; Ch., Christians; M., Methodist; Uv., Universalist; R. C., Roman Catholic; Swed., Swedenborgians; S. A., Second Advents; Chr. G., Church of God. Those printed in italics are ordained ministers, but without charge of any particular church.

OBITUARY REGISTER.

Hon. TIMOTHY HOSKINS, of Sunapee, formerly of Westmoreland, died in August or September, 1857. Mr. Hoskins represented Westmoreland in the Legislature for the years 1833 and 1834, and was elected to the Senate for 1843 and 1844; the last of which he was elected President of the Senate.

JOHN GIBSON, Esq., died Dec. 4, 1857, aged 53 years. Mr. Gibson was born in Francestown—represented his town in the Legislature, 1832; removed to Concord, 1847 or 1848, and succeeded Mr. William Walker in the Eagle Hotel, where he continued until the hotel was burned, when he returned to Francestown; where he remained until a hotel was rebuilt, which, being completed in 1852, Mr. Gibson leased the new hotel, returned to Concord, and continued its proprietor until December, 1856, when he again removed to his farm in Francestown. Mr. Gibson was a kind husband, affectionate parent, and was a man much respected by all who had his acquaintance.

JOHN PORTER, Esq., of Derry, died Dec. 4, 1857, aged 82 years. Mr. Porter was born in Bridgewater, Mass.; graduated at Hanover in 1803; read law in the office of A. Hutchinson, Esq., of Lebanon, and commenced practice at Londonderry; which he represented in the Legislature in 1817 and 1827, and Derry (a portion of the town of Londonderry incorporated) 1828-9 and 1833-1841, '2, '3, '4, '5 and 1847. At the February term of the Supreme Judicial Court, held at Exeter, an appropriate notice was taken of the death of Mr. Porter by distinguished gentlemen of the bench and bar.

REV. LABAN AINSWORTH, of Jaffrey, died March 17, 1858, aged 100 years, 7 months and 28 days. Mr. Ainsworth was settled over the Congregational Church in Jaffrey, Dec. 10, 1782, and sustained the pastoral office until his death. From the active duties of the ministry he retired about thirty years before his death.

HIRAM A. SPEAR, Esq., of Laconia, died March 4, 1858, aged about 32 years. Mr. Spear was born in West Braintree, Vt.—read law with J. P. Kildler, Esq., of that State. In 1852 he opened an office at Meredith, N. H., where he remained until his death, except a portion of the years 1854 and 1855, when he was absent in California. He was appointed Register of Probate for Belknap, July 14, 1856, and held the office at the time of his death.

Gen. SAMUEL M. RICHARDSON, of Pelham, died March 11, aged 82 years. Mr. Richardson was born in the same town and at the same place where he died. He represented his town in the Legislature for the years 1830 and 1835. He was a brother of the late Chief Justice Richardson; was a farmer, a man of strict integrity, good judgment and one who was greatly respected.

OTIS FRENCH, M. D., of Gilmanton, died April, aged 53 years. Dr. French had been a practicing physician in Gilmanton some thirty years, where he gained a high reputation as a physician, citizen and neighbor.

JOHN JAMES GILCHRIST was born Feb. 16, 1809, in Medford, Mass. He graduated at Harvard College, 1828, and soon after commenced the study of law in the office of the Hon. Henry Hubbard, of Charlestown, in New-Hampshire, and where he completed his law course of study with the exception of the usual lecture courses; was admitted to the practice of law in Sullivan County, and commenced practice in his profession at Charlestown. He represented his town in the Legislature for the years 1836 and 1837. June 15, 1835, was appointed Register of Probate; Sept. 4, 1837, appointed Solicitor, the duty of which offices he performed until 1840, when, on March 17, he was appointed Associate Justice in the Superior Court of Judicature; and June 26, 1848, was appointed Chief Justice of the same court. In the year 1855, March 16, the Hon. J. J. Gilchrist resigned his office as Chief Justice, and was appointed, under the authority of the President and Senate of the United States, to the office of Chief Justice of the Court of Claims at Washington, in which office he continued until his death, which took place at Washington April 29, 1858.

The ability and character of the Hon. J. J. Gilchrist was ably and truthfully given in the Boston Daily Advertiser soon after his death.

WILLIAM WALKER, Esq., of Concord, died August 2, 1858, aged 72 years. Mr. Walker was known as a popular landlord at Amoskeag, Andover, and, lastly, at the Eagle Hotel in Concord, where he continued until about 1848, when he retired to his private dwelling, to spend the remainder of his days with his family in quiet and social retirement.

Died August 20, EDWARD PHILBRICK, aged 89 years. Mr. Philbrick was Messenger to the House of Representatives 22 consecutive years, beginning with 1809, and Messenger to the Court of Common Pleas and Superior Court of Judicature 27 consecutive years, beginning in 1823. He was a peaceable, faithful and an honest man.

Died August 26, Hon. RALPH METCALF, of Claremont, aged 62 years. Mr. Metcalf was a native of Charlestown. He graduated at Hanover, 1823—studied the profession of law, and in 1825 commenced practice at Newport. In 1831 was elected Secretary of the State, and was continued seven consecutive years. In 1845 was appointed Register of Probate for Sullivan County, and held the office to November, 1850. January, 1848, was appointed Solicitor, and served to August 31, 1849; also made chairman of the committee for compiling the laws of the State in 1852. In 1852 and 1853 he represented his town in the Legislature; was elected Governor for the years 1855 and 1856.

Died, Sept. 7, Hon. SAMUEL MORRIL, of Concord, aged 79 years. Mr. Morrill was a native of Epping; studied the profession of medicine, and commenced practice in Salisbury; 1800, removed to Epsom, and in 1819 became a resident of Concord; 1821 was appointed Associate Justice of the Court of Sessions; 1822 represented Concord in the House of Representatives; 1823 was appointed Register of Deeds for Merrimack, and served to October, when he resigned, and was, Oct. 7, 1823, appointed Judge of Probate for the County of Merrimack, and served to June, 1828, when he was chosen Treasurer of the State, and served one year. In 1830 he was chosen Treasurer of the N. H. Savings Bank, in which he faithfully and acceptably performed his duties until 1856, when he resigned. Mr. Morrill was a good neighbor, a good citizen, and a man who lived on the principle of "Live and let live."
